Dean Taylor Independent Financial Adviser

Dean offers advice on all areas of financial planning. This enables him to provide thorough and sound guidance to both new and existing clients.

Dean has gained many years of experience working in the financial services industry and worked with Money Portal Ltd since 2000.

He has a professional attitude and uses a disciplined process to assist clients in achieving their financial goals.

About Dean:

Dean hasn't always worked in the financial services industry. In fact he spent 9 years working as a Chartered Physiotherapist working for both the NHS and private practice. He is also qualified in Cranial Osteopathy and Acupuncture which provides Dean with the mental attitude to succeed.

In 2000, Dean became a Financial Adviser where he has been exceptional in the areas of advice he provides. Although able to provide financial advice in many areas, Dean specialises in protection and mortgages.

He has been married for 9 years and has a broad spectrum of interests. He enjoys mountain bike riding, keeping fit, personal development, Tai Chi, Neuro Linguistic Programming and Life Coaching.
